Chapter 1 by Angus Holliday

Cut Throat Kate (CTK) and One Eyed Jane (OEJ) were two evil pirates who captained a great big dirty rotting ship together where they loved mutiny, they loved stealing, they loved destroying their opponent and their favourite way of killing was a big knife in the back.

Conspiring to create mutiny on their own ship was one way they enjoyed to remove unloyal pirates. One Eyed Jane was sometimes far too unimaginative and a horrible actress. The crew eventually figured out their twisted games and the less loyal pirates were able to survive a little longer. Cut Throat Kate grew increasingly angry from being outwitted and erupted one balmy afternoon about the lack of mutiny.

"Who here has not been planning mutiny?", she yelled furiously with the sunsetting behind her.

No one said a peep.

She grabbed Seawee, one of the deckhands, by the scruff of his grimey ripped collar and started choking him.

"Did I just hear you right?"

Sputtering and stuttering in pure confusion Seawee shook his head in different directions.

"What in smattering communication does that mean? Speak puny one." Cut Throat Kate roared as she tightened her grip.

"Aye Captain," nervously squeezed out of Seawee's burning purple crustled lips.

CTK growled, vehemently picking up Seawee by the scruff of his grimey ripped collar and tossed him overboard, where the sharks in Port Looie would have a lovely dinner. Seawee was an appetiser.
